

PRACTICAL MEANING FOR BELIEVERS

- Christ understands our struggles.
 - His life is a proof that victory over sin is possible through dependence on divine power.
 - Believers can 'partake of the divine nature' (2 Peter 1:4) and overcome as He overcame.
- 'He has made it possible for us to be partakers of divine nature; He assures us that we may overcome as He overcame'- Manuscript 141, 1901.

CONCLUSION

Christ assumed fallen human nature. He lived a sinless life in that nature. His life provides the model and the means for our victory.

THE NATURE OF CHRIST

This subject is sacred and mysterious, but essential to understanding salvation

1. Jesus took humanity in its fallen condition.
2. He assumed the same human nature - weak, tempted, and mortal.
3. And yet without sin.

BIBLICAL FOUNDATION

Romans 8:3 - 'For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh'

Hebrews 4:15. 'For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as [we are, yet] without sin.'

Christ shared our flesh. Hebrews 2:14-18

1 Timothy 3:16- 'And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.'

- The incarnation is a divine mystery
- Christ entered human experience and fully identified with us.

SPIRIT OF PROPHECY

The Ministry of Healing, p. 180 - 'The Saviour took upon Himself the infirmities of humanity and lived a sinless life, that men might have no fear that because of the weakness of human nature they could not overcome. Christ came to make us "partakers of the divine nature," and His life declares that humanity, combined with divinity, does not commit sin.'

TWO NATURES OF CHRIST

- In His divinity, Christ was pure, holy, and impeccable (He could not sin).
- In His humanity, He was subject to temptation and weakness - capable of suffering and death.
- Yes His divine and human natures united in one Person, a mystery beyond full human understanding. The balance protects both the reality of his humanity and perfection of His divinity.
